

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FEBRUARY 24, 1873.

Read twice, referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. ORR, on leave, introduced the following bill :

A BILL

To extend State laws on the subject of "occupying claimants" to actions tried in the courts of the United States.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That in all actions to recover the possession of real property
4 in any of the courts of the United States the parties thereto
5 shall be entitled to all the rights and remedies provided and
6 given to them by the laws of the State in which said real
7 estate is situated, known as laws for the benefit of "occupying
8 claimants," to the same extent and as fully as if said actions
9 were pending or tried in the courts of said State.
